

FLORENCE QUINATA, M.D.

Seeing patients starting August, 2018

Platinum Women's Health is pleased to introduce Dr. Quinata to our practice. She brings many years of experience, relocating from the Las Vegas, Nevada area with her family. For the past 8 years she has served her country by providing care to the women of the Air Force, and now begins her career in private practice. She is qualified to provide all necessary obstetrics and gynecology services. We look forward to her bringing her excellent patient care to the community. For appointments or consults, please contact our office at the number provided, or click the appointment request icon on our website.
